Collectors must send their prepared covers in an outer wrapper, fully franked with Canadian postage stamps to the care of the Postmasters at the respective post offices so that they arrive before the periods listed above.

Cash, personal checks or United States stamps will not be accepted.

and have the flaps either sealed or turned in.

Postage rates are 4c for the first ounce of surface mail to the United States and Great Britain. Air Rates are 7c for the first ounce to the United States, with 15c for the first quarter ounce to Great Britain.

Covers for delivery in Canada require 4c for surface mail and 7c for air.

Semipostals For German Exhibition

A "three in one" session of German stamp collectors in September will merit an issue of two semipostal stamps. Component sections are an exhibition at Wuppertal from September 14 to 18, the first since 1941; the Fifth Congress of the German Philatelic Federation; and the 52nd meeting of German Collectors.

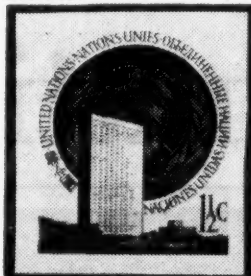

All are to be held at Wuppertal during the exhibition.

Denominations are to be 10 plus 2pf and 20 plus 3pf. One design common to both will show four stamps of the 1851 era of the several German States.

According to H. Kurt Weyerhauser of Hamburg, Germany there will be a bi-color seal for the show.

Release Two UN
Stamp Designs

The secretary general of the United Nations has just released photographs of two of the eight designs selected for the first UN postage stamps to be issued in October.

The "Headquarters Building" design which is the work of the Mexican artist Leon Helguera will be used for the 1 1/2c and 50c denominations of the regular series.

In accordance with provisions of the Universal Postal Convention the 1 1/2c denomination will be green and the 50c in gray.

The "Peace, Justice, Security" stamp designed by the Netherlands artist J. F. Doeve will have a steel blue color for the 2c and carmine for the $1.

The four stamps above are to be printed by the firm of Johan Enschede and Sons of Haarlem, The Netherlands.

The designs shown above are working drawings prepared by the manufacturer of the stamps for the engravers. The issued stamps may vary slightly in some respects with them.

OUR AIRMAIL STAMPS

A Brief Digest And Chronicle Of Our Airmail Stamps
As Issued During The Past 32 Years

by H. M. Brehm

PART VI

JUBILEE 3c-RED-JULY 31, 1948-NEW YORK-36,449,100

Issued to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Greater New York. The "golden wedding band", encircled by planes, bears the names of the former boroughs—Manhattan, Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond, joined together for better or worse in 1898.

As the issue was strictly limited this time, the stamps became a speculator's item almost at once. Incidentally, it is the only U.S. airmail stamp exactly the size and shape of our ordinary postage stamps.

SMALL 6c-RED-JANUARY 18, 1949-(still in use)

We waited just six months to let New York have fun with its 5c Jubilee stamps, and then OOPS! we went again to 6c. The design is the same as the previous small 5c red stamp.

COMMEM-6c-RED-MAY 11, 1949-ALEX. VA.—(No total)

We formerly honored dead men and brave deeds and our country on postage stamps; next we began commemorating our States and Territories, and now we are getting down to individual cities. New York had its stamp in 1948, so Alexandria must have an airmail stamp too—or else. Ah, politics.....

The central design of the stamp shows the Alexandria seal, backed by a pair of wings—airmail or angel? To the left is shown the home of John Carlyle, one of the city's founders, while on the right is depicted Gadsby's tavern (of all things) where George Washington and John Paul Jones met occasionally for a wee nippee and to speak of the state of the union.

10 PURPLE-NOVEMBER 18, 1949-NEW ORLEANS-(No Total) 15c ULTRAMARINE-OCTOBER 7, 1949-CHICAGO-(No Total) 25c RED-NOVEMBER 30, 1949-SEATTLE-(No Total)

Issued to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the UNIVERSAL POSTAL UNION (U.P.U. to you). Seems to me that about 78 nations belong to this worthy organization, and each such nation offered multiple sets of stamps, many of them ridiculous and high-priced, in an effort to get on the collectors' band-wagon and cash in on a good thing while the racket lasts and the public buys. (Even into 1950)

Uncle Sam did his bit with a modest three stamps: The 10c stamp depicts lovely birds flying around the world. The 15c shows our stately Post Office Department Building in Washington, something really to be proud of. The 25c apparently depicts a 4-motor transport headed East in a cloud of red dust—or what is it?

6c COM-MAROON-DEC. 17, 1949-KITTY HAWK-(No Total) WRIGHT BROTHERS. They have always been the right brothers to me—those two sons of a preacher father and a wonderful mother, who, by sheer will, ability, research and tinkering discovered and gave to mankind the basic rules and appurtenances for flying, which are firmly incorporated in all modern planes.

A stamp showing their likenesses and a reproduction of their first "aeroplane" is a nice gesture, but can add little to the worldwide stature of them in the memories of men and nations. They are at peace and at rest, and need no further human glory. Amen.

CORRECTION

10c BLUE - FEBRUARY 13, 1926 - DETROIT & OTHERS-42,092,800

15c SEPIA - FEBRUARY 13, 1926 - WASHINGTON-15,597,307 20c GREEN - JANUARY 25, 1927 - NY & WASHINGTON-17,616,350

Always knew that zone business wasn't right and wouldn't work. So Congress figured out a different wrinkle, which it deemed more equitable to us public and easier to figure for the tired mail clerk. This is how it worked: 10c per ounce for the first 1000 miles—15c from 1000 to 1500 miles—20c for more than 1500 miles—5c for each additional ounce in any zone.

So this is where the mysterious 15c stamp comes in handy—it prepaid the first two ounces in the 1000-mile zone, and the first ounce in the second zone. (Thanks to A. S. for this correction.)

CONCLUSION

BRITISH EMPIRE CHATTER

by HENRY M. FRIEDMAN
Box 21, Planetarium Sta.
New York 24, N. Y.

AUSTRALIA. On August 15, 1950, Australia released their 8½ pence Aborigine stamp. In the September 4, 1950 issue this column ventured the opinion that this stamp would not be popular with the Australian stamp using public.

It is now announced that the printing of this stamp has been discontinued.

The official reason is that this stamp and several others are no longer necessary. This 8½ pence has been in use for less than one year and was bought and used in limited quantities only.

This may be a good item, especially in used condition.

SUDAN. For some time we have heard that the popular "Camel" set was to be replaced by a new pictorial issue, only to be advised from time to time that the same had been delayed.

It is now announced that this pictorial set will be released on September 1, 1951.

The "Camel" stamps have been in use for over 50 years with only occasional slight changes. These bicolored stamps have always been popular with collectors and with few exceptions are still low in catalogue price.

This "Camel" design will be retained on only one stamp in the new series, the 50 Piastres. The total face value as announced is over one Pound and the complete new set is to be overprinted "S. G." for official use, which will double the cost.

BRITISH SOLOMON ISLANDS has just increased the postal rates which may result in new values or new colors or both.

GREAT BRITAIN. The one penny postage due stamp has been released in blue and it is expected that other values will be changed to conform to the recent color changes in the regular series.

ST. LUCIA. It is reported that a special issue of stamps will be issued in 1952 to commemorate the 450th anniversary of the discovery of the island.

CEYLON. This colony issued four "War Stamps" in 1918. They are all cheap and plentiful (excluding the errors). The peculiar thing is, that the first "War Stamp" of Ceylon was issued on November 18, 1918, just about a week after the end of World War I.

BARBADOS. Check your copy of Barbados #193, the ½ penny green. Listed by Scott at 20c regardless of perforation, is quite scarce with the 14 perforation.

This is priced by Gibbons at 35 shillings and by Commonwealth at 52 shillings and 6 pence.

Thanks For A Job Well Done

I am starting this editorial in the way that I should have started the one of last week and that is to thank Mr. Rueth for the splendid manner in which he filled my shoes during my vacation to Hawaii. I am sure that our readers enjoyed the change for the few weeks and that they will again welcome him back at any future date when I choose to be away.

GEORGE W. LINN

Carl did a splendid job and I know that the paper will be in good hands and follow in the pathways that has made the editorial of this paper some of the most widely read of all stamp publications, when I am forced to retire either due to old age or at the call of our Maker.

My Hawaiian Story

The editorial of last week was just a burst of enthusiasm over the trip. I have since realized after having had time to rest a bit that the story is far too long to cover in this column so I started at the beginning and will continue it through two or three numbers hoping to cover the highlights. You will find the start of the story elsewhere in this issue.

Reviewing the paper for the five weeks while away I find that it shows some evidence of the natural summer slump but not enough to cause any feeling that calls for any action out of the ordinary. There has been some changes in other papers, particularly in Mekeel's which turns to the tabloid form altho by a printing process that is in no way like our paper which is a strictly newspaper job and can not be matched by any other method.

I have been too out of touch with general conditions in the stamp trade throughout the country to comment on same but I do note that the American Stamp Dealers Association are again planning their annual Show in New York in November. I note also that the SPA Convention is to be in Cincinnati which is just a little over a hundred miles from home and thus I will have to be there for a couple days at least. Following is the PSS Convention at Pittsburgh which will attract the Precancel boys and they will have a good time as always, after which the Canadian Exhibition at Toronto and it is our hope to make at least a week end visit at this show.

By the time that is over the fall season will be with us and everything points to a good season ahead for the stamp people if they will do business in a proper manner.

What we need most in our hobby is a more thorough and proper introduction into the hobby for newcomers, both on the part of the experienced collectors and of dealers. Dealers should attempt to get newcomers started in the right manner rather than merely try to sell them some stamps. It is the student and the man that gets seriously interested in our hobby that has made it what it is today and we need more of this type of collector.

Hawaiian Missionaries

Few collectors have ever seen one and that is because but few of them are in existence. Likewise few collectors of today ever heard of the so called Grinnell Missionaries or of the trial that was held in San Francisco over 30 years ago over the question of authenticity of a number of these stamps. At that time the judgment was in favor of the parties who asserted that the Grinnell stamps were counterfeits. The case is a famous one as stamp cases go and it was my good fortune when in Hawaii to see a number of these stamps and after returning to Los Angeles I saw many more of them and there is still a lot that I have not yet seen.

These stamps intrigued me solely because they are unlike most all other stamps. We all know that from the start of stamps that most stamps were engraved. These Missionaries were from type set forms, printed on a big handpress in a most crude manner and are thus beyond the understanding of those men who have given their life study to stamps of the engraved kind. The Missionaries are strictly a printers job and should be looked at as such. My own examination of them was done from the angle that any old time printer would use in looking at the stamps. I feel that any first class printer of the old school who has a thorough stamp knowledge would see them as I see them and that there are things about these stamps that the ordinary stamp man trained by looking at and considering engraved stamps would overlook.

I am going to be frank in saying that I am going to give these stamps a most thorough study in the belief that they may be as genuine and as real as any of the known recognized copies.

I realize that in making this statement that I will be called a fool by many who have never seen what I can see in these stamps. In doing what I am about to do I am going to ask for assistance from any and every angle. I shall greatly appreciate any information either favoring or more particularly condemning these stamps for I believe that I can prove to any fair minded person that most any derogatory statement anyone has to make about the stamps is wrong.

Come then and help me for I am judging and examining these stamps from an angle which they have never before been judged and when I have my facts accumulated I hope to lay them down before a group of reputable stamp men and ask their decision. The stamp world should be glad to help in this effort for these stamps have been among the most controversial stamps in the history of our hobby and if it is possible to clear up the actual facts about these stamps the stamp world should be thankful. I shall not yet expound my theories but when I have the material together I believe that I can convince many to believe as I believe, thus I invite anyone and everyone who has any knowledge or facts on Hawaiian Missionaries or on these Grinnell stamps to supply me with those facts. I especially want statements condemning the stamps if anyone can support such statements with argument and facts. Please feel free to write me.

Canada Revises Purchase Rules

As a result of experience over the past two years in the sale to postage stamp collectors of the official use postage stamps overprinted with the letters "O.H.M.S." and "G", the Post Office Department of Canada has concluded that the requirement that these stamps be purchased in full sheets, half sheets, etc., in order to obtain plate number blocks is contrary to good administrative practice. To correct this condition, the Department has decided that collectors may purchase plate number blocks of all new issues of official use stamps overprinted with the letter "G" by paying for four stamps only and specifying that these items are desired.

The Department has decided that the above mentioned change of policy will not apply to those stamp issues that have been overprinted with the letters "O.H.M.S." and "G" in the past and have been sold from the Philatelic Section. It is believed that the removal of the present restrictions on these issues would have the effect of reducing the value of those stamps already purchased by philatelists and that no change in policy should be made while stocks of these stamps last in the Department's Philatelic Section.

Collectors may now order plate number blocks of official use stamps overprinted with the letter "G" of the 1949, King George VI Issue, revised design, printed in the new color, olive-green, in the 2c denomination, by specifying this item in their orders and remitting sufficient funds for four stamps only for each plate block desired.

As new design or new color postage stamps overprinted with the letter "G" are available from the stocks, additional philatelic announcements will be made advising collectors that they are available under the same conditions as described above.

It is emphasized that there is no change in policy for the sale of those plate number blocks of official use stamp issues in circulation as at the June 30, 1951, or of the ordinary use stamps which are not overprinted and which are in use now or may be put into circulation at a later date. In these cases, if plate number blocks are desired, the following minimum quantities of stamps must be ordered for each plate number:

100 stamps (full panes) of each of the 1c to 5c, inclusive, small size.

50 stamps (full panes) of each of the 4c and 5c commemoratives, large size.

25 stamps (one quarter pane) of the 15c, commemorative, small size.

25 stamps (half pane) of each of the 7c to 20c, inclusive, large size.

10 stamps (one-fifth pane) of each of the 50c and $1.00, large size.

The number of plate numbers that will be supplied to each customer will be limited in all issues to a maximum of 5 for each plate position, or a total of 20 for each plate number when position is not a factor.

It has been found necessary to adhere to the policy outlined above to ensure that the best possible distribution of plate number positions is made to postage stamp collectors.

Stamps overprinted for official use cannot be guaranteed for centering and no exchanges or refunds will be accepted on this account.

All orders for official use stamps must be accompanied by a signed declaration to the effect that they are for collection purposes only and will not be used to prepay postage.

Orders are to be sent to the Philatelic Agency, Post Office Department, Ottawa, Canada.

Foreign Exchange Control Regulations require that payment of U.S. patrons be in U.S. funds. Postal money orders, bank drafts, travellers checks, or certified checks in U.S. funds are acceptable. A premium of 5% is allowed on all U.S. funds over $2.

Philately Again At Carnegie Museum

After the suspension for a number of years of philatelic activity the Carnegie Museum of Pittsburgh, Pa. has announced that it will once again resume exhibit programs related to stamp collecting in its many interesting phases.

William L. Alexander will serve as honorary curator directing the rebuilding and restoration of the museum's stamp collections as well as the planning of future exhibition programs.

Preliminary surveys indicate that the following collections are all in top notch condition:

Postage and Revenue issues of the 19th century.

United States engravers' proofs of the 19th century, United States commemorative stamps from 1893 to 1935.

Other collections of all kinds need to be greatly augmented. To this end Carnegie Museum will accept donations of cash and philatelic material.

Brazil Honors Cornell Alumnus

by Manoel F. da Motta

A former citizen of Kelloggsville, N. Y. and a graduate of Cornell University class of 1873 was honored by Brazil with a 2Cr. gray commemorative stamp on the 100th anniversary of his birth, July 20.

He is Orville Adelbert Derby born in 1851 who later traveled to Brazil and subsequently became a citizen of that nation. One of the outstanding geologists and mineralogists of all time, Derby is considered an authority in his field.

Graduation from Cornell with a major in Geology was followed in the next two years with a professorship at the same school in his chosen field.

Brazil's vast unknown regions intrigued Derby after a visit to the country a factor which decided him in accepting membership on the first Geological and Geographical Commission organized by Professor Charles F. Hartt in 1875.

Once in Brazil, Derby remained there for the balance of his life, serving that nation in various capacities. His contributions to his adopted country was in two forms, actual discovery and writings about them.

Of the latter there was 174 essays which today are being assembled by a former pupil, Prof. Alfen Diniz Goncalves for republication under authority of the National Congress. Forty-eight dealt with Economical Mineralogy and Geology; 43 on Brazil's History, Geography, Physics and Cartography; 32 on Geology, and others on Paleontology, Archaeology and Mineralogy.

Derby's services to Brazil can be generally grouped in four periods. As a geologist he took part in the first Geography and Geology Commission from 1875 to 1878.

As director of the Geology Department of the National Museum from 1879 to 1891 he was responsible for adding much to the knowledge of Brazil's natural resources.

From 1892 to 1904 he was head of the nation's Geography and Geological Service, an establishment of his own origination, and which today is known as the "Departamento Nacional da Producao Mineral."

He served on a special commission to the state of Bahia from 1905 to 1906.

Derby's studies were recognized by the major scientific institutions of the world. The Geographical Society of London awarded him the "Wollaston Prize," an honor which he prized highly.

Several months before his death on July 23, 1915 Derby became a Brazilian citizen as an expression of sincere gratitude to the nation.

Czech Movie Meef Rates Three Stamps

When Czechoslovakia played host to the International Film Festival at Karlovy Vary from July 14 to 29, the postal administration issued three stamps to mark the event.

One design common to the 80h dark rose and the 4Kcs blue has a scene from the movie, "Fall of Berlin." The 1.50Kcs. gray green has a scene from the picture, "The Great Citizen."

The former were the work of designer Karel Perman and engraver Jan Mracek, the latter of designer Jiri Figer and engraver Jindra Schmidt.

The first day of issue was on July 14, the validity of the stamps for postage fees not being limited as to time.

The central subject of the picture on the post card is a spade. Its handle is marked with red and white stripes and a blue field with white stars, which identifies it as American. The trouser leg of the foot on the spade is composed of U. N. flags in colors. The only significance of the subject is that the U. S. furnished the spade and the U. N. is directing its use. In other words the Americans are supplying the money to help Greece and the U. N. is directing its spending. I do not understand Greek and I may be wrong in my deduction.

Suggestions For A Long Overdue Series Of U.S. Postage Stamps

by J. F. McGee

Maybe some of the European and Asiatic governments have publicly expressed gratitude for the billions of dollars in lease-lend equipment, relief supplies and Marshall Plan funds provided by American taxpayers. If any of them has, it is news to me. For a time I expected at least one country would issue a set of postage stamps lauding American economic assistance to its people. If such items appeared, they escaped my attention.

I doubt that many European people are faintly aware of the extent of the American aid to them. A year or so ago the French government built a new skiing resort and a mountain road leading to it with American Marshall Plan money. A few small signs were placed which announced it was "An ECA Project." An American asked some of the workers and other persons if they knew what the initials stood for. None of them did and cared less for what they meant.

I suggest that our government issue a long series of postage stamps with subjects that would remind the world, and especially the people of Europe, of the tremendous sacrifices and generosity of the American people during and after the war to feed and clothe them and to modernize their backward countries.

The Russians, after the British, were the greatest recipients of American lease-lend. We sent them thousands of planes, tanks, trucks and jeeps, together with shiploads of equipment, supplies and food. An appropriate stamp subject would be of a Russian soldier discarding his sodden felt boots for American leather shoes and galoshes. It could be captioned, "His First Leather Shoes Supplied by America."

Another good stamp subject would be a view of a fleet of colliers at sea. It could be labeled, "Carrying American Coal to Newcastle, England."

At the end of the war, cloth was so scarce in France that women improvised G-string bathing suits. A striking stamp subject would be a French model attired in a Bikini swim suit and another in a dress with a long and flaring skirt. The design could be described as, "Before and After American Relief."

To be really serious, there is no dearth of suitable stamp subjects, for we shared with Europe practically everything we raise, produce and manufacture. As examples of the diversity of this aid, in Rome there is a new American-equipped TV station, in a Belgian bakery there is an American bread slicing machine, in a Denmark candy factory an American candy bar wrapping machine, and in a Dutch toy factory American doll-head molds, all paid for by American Marshall Plan funds.

In Greece one can buy a series of beautiful picture post cards that pay tribute to American and U. N. help in rebuilding the country. Those I have seen feature the flags of the principal U. N. nations in colors. I have observed in this grouping of the flags, those of Greece and Britain are always given the most prominent positions. Be that as it may, on one card the sun that is shining down on Greece has been given the stars and stripes of the American flag.

people who had never rode any trains except those from the west, for we were disappointed in this matter as we feel trains running east to New York on almost any of the lines have a far better dining service than anything we had on western trains.

We left Chicago on time, arrived in Denver the next morning on schedule and there the trouble began. Our train should have gone thru the Moffatt Tunnel but a washout near it made it necessary that we be routed through the Grand Canyon. This meant delay and delay it was for we reached Frisco about six hours late. The trip through the Canyon was interesting if you like to look at sheer walls of rock and other such sights as are pictured in tourist folders. For me, a little of that goes a long way and I began to wonder why the Maker had made so much worthless waste land between Denver and the coast. When we got to Salt Lake and I saw the desert and the waste land around there I came to the conclusion that Brigham Young stopped there and said "Here it is" because he just felt it was hopeless to try to get any farther.

In all of the traveling to the coast and back we never saw a large herd of cattle and we never saw a sizeable piece of land that looked like it was fit for grazing a herd. Perhaps we just missed seeing such, but that is a fact. Lots of fine farming country till we got to the Rockies and then just sightseeing land as written up by the tourist agencies. On the way to Frisco we also went through the Feather River Canyon which is country in which much of the early Gold rush of California figured. Some people love scenery and can gaze for hours on a peak or pinnacle or a deep canyon in the ground but to me the most amazing thing was the work of man in building a railroad through the places the trains went and in the big hydro-electric outfits and other engineering feats that dotted the mountains, including the marvelous highways.

At this rate I can see that this story is going to run pretty long, in fact it might have to be continued over into another issue so lets get on to San Francisco where we arrived on Tuesday evening about six hours late due to the detour. We landed in Oakland and took the ferry across the bay to Frisco. We passed under the big Oakland Bay Bridge and were soon at the dock where we were met by a couple now living in Frisco but who had previously lived in Rochester, N.Y., the home of Mrs. Linn.

Our first stop was at the Southern Pacific Ticket office in the Ferry building for we had decided while going west that we would stay a few days longer on the return trip and go down to Los Angeles and then to Las Vegas, Nevada where our grandson is at Nellis Air Base. After this was taken care of we left our tickets to pick them up when we came back from Hawaii and went direct to the Cliff Hotel, an excellent hotel and well located.

Our welcome here was in the nature of two of the most beautiful baskets of flowers that one could wish for. One from our long time friend Harry Gray who has a stamp store in Oakland and the other from the California Collectors Club at whose meeting I was scheduled to talk on my return from Hawaii. Mrs. Linn just loved the flowers and her only regret was that she couldn't take them with her when she left. We both surely appreciated the kindness and thoughtfulness of these lovely people who provided such a splendid welcome.

Our stay in Frisco was to be from Tuesday evening till Wednesday afternoon when we were to board the Lurline for Hawaii. It seems however that there are people who take nothing into consideration than their own selves for some of the people of this nature decided they had a grievance of some sort against the Matson line and refused to help get the boat out and fought to keep anyone else from doing that. These people failed to realize that something like 750 people had traveled to San Francisco from all parts of the country with a definite time and financial schedule and planned to go on that boat on the 20th. That all these people were forced to spend extra money and time and that some had to give up their plans and return home meant nothing, the only thing that counted was to take care of fifty or sixty persons who could have settled their difference in some other manner without discommoding hundreds of others who were spending money to patronize a business that provided work and a living for these people. Time will come some day in this country when such occurrences will be forbidden and labor will be better off when that time comes. Thus we had to loaf in San Francisco for three extra days before we were able to sail.

We were far more fortunate than most who had planned this trip for the friends previously mentioned gave us all of their spare time and even more in showing us the city. We drove north across the Golden Gate Bridge, we also went out in other directions and saw much of the small towns adjacent to Frisco. This was a fortunate thing for us for we went prepared for summer and presumed sunny California would give us a warm summer welcome but were we surprised. The climate in Frisco was cold and chilly. Mrs. Linn wished for her furs and I having taken a rain coat was glad for its comfort but my panama hat in a wintry setting looked queer so I ventured around bare headed.

A visit to the Cliff House was a pleasant sight, we went up to the "Mark" which is the Mark Hopkins Hotel, set atop one of the high hills of which the city is full. Walking along a street one might turn a corner and bump into a 45 degree hill or see one going down. Such a town would be no place for a man with a bad heart such as I have for I could not get up such hills without a cab, walking about would be just out of the question. The natives seem to take them as a matter of course but none of that goes for me.

The Fisherman's Wharf is reputed to be a splendid place to eat and we of course went there for a dinner. It was at Tarantinos that we had a seafood dinner and while I have never been an eater, I know the rest of the folks enjoyed it. However to my way of thinking one of the best meals I had and enjoyed the most on the whole trip was at a small Bohemian place called The Iron Pot at 639 Montgomery Place. The atmosphere was strictly that of long haired artists, the place was run by Italians, the walls were filled with paintings and the crowd was strictly a cosmopolitan one. The menu is interesting and filled with witty points about the place. We had a meal here for $1.35 that I enjoyed more than some that cost three times that figure. Imagine a big gallon and a half pot of fine and delicious Minestrone soup. About the finest bowl of soup one ever ate. It was

CEYLON—On August 1 this country released a new 10 cent stamp, featuring coconut palms, strikingly printed in green on a blue-gray background.

Printing was in sheets of 100, by Courvoisier, of Switzerland, using the heliogravure process. This stamp replaces the old-type 10c value which was withdrawn from sale at the close of business July 31.

COLOMBIA — A 10c airmail, with overprinted "L" inverted is reported. It is stated 50 copies exist.

HUNGARY—Two new issues have been announced. One set of four stamps marks the "re-birth" or new buildings in Budapest, to replace some of the damages of the last war. Values are: 20 filler, green; 30f. orange; 40f. brown and 60f. red.

The second set, of three stamps, marks the 15th anniversary of the death of Maxim Gorky (June 18, 1936), famed Soviet author. The stamps show Gorky and are of the following values; 60 fillers, brick-red; 1 Forint, blue and 2 Forint, lilac.

ISRAEL—Sometime this month this country will issue an 80 prutah stamp, in green, to mark the opening meeting of the 23rd Zionist Congress in Jerusalem. The stamp will have a likeness of Dr. Theodor Zeev Herzl, founder of the Zionist movement, born in Budapest May 7, 1860 and who died July 2, 1904 after having spent most of his life in Paris and Vienna.

Dr. Herzl predicted the rebirth of Israel in his books "A Jewish State" and "Alt-Neuland," and was first president of the World Zionist Organization.

Printing of the stamps was done by M. & G. Shamir of Tel Aviv.

ITALY — Copies of the new Milan Fair stamps, showing the modernistic and ancient forms of art, have been received on first day cover from the Compagnia Sammarinese, Rome.

JAPAN—Mori Ogai, author, has been portrayed on an 8 yen stamp, in brown-red, printed in sheets of 20 (4x5) after a portrait by Masaru Kimura. Ogai (born January 19, 1862 and died July 9, 1922) was active in Army medicine in addition to his literary abilities.

NEW ZEALAND—Yachts will feature the 1951 Health series. The 1½d. plus ½d., red and 2d. plus 1d. gray-green, will show yachts of the Takapuna class against the New Zealand coastline.

PHILIPPINES—The City of Iloilo coat of arms series, will be released August 26, coinciding with the 55th anniversary of the Cry of Balintawak, the spark which ignited the revolution against Spain.

Values will be 5 centavos, green; 6c. violet and 18c., Prussian blue.

VENEZUELA—First day covers of the Simon Bolivar Statue set, including those sent to this department by F. Jacobi, do not show the date of issue in the cancellation. Such covers are, therefore, practically worthless.

WESTERN SAMOA—A ten-stamp pictorial set, already approved, is not scheduled for release until 1952.

The subjects are to be: ½d. rust brown and bright maroon, Samoan woman making siapo cloth; 1d. deep green and olive green, national flag of Western Samoa flying with that of New Zealand; 2d. deep claret, new seal of Western Samoa; 3d. indigo and royal blue, Alseisa Falls; 5d. tartan green and chestnut, tooth-billed pigeon; 6d. fuchsia red and royal blue, bonite fishing canoe; 8d. claret, harvesting cacao; 1 shilling, bright blue and pink brown, thatching a native hut; 2/- khaki, preparing copra and 3/- deep olive green and purple brown, Samoan chieftainess.

ANNA, OHIO ENVELOPE

Mrs. George Bush of Chicago submitted what appears to be a local precancelled stamped envelope. It was of the 2c denomination of the just past series and was cut square so no corner card was available.

The cancellation was more of a stamp precancellation that that of the regular government envelope precancels. There was a wavy line above and below, the wavy line being of small dots evidence that it was some sort of a printers border. The inscription was in large thin letters with serifs and we would off hand call it a Sytmie light.

Since there are only four letters in each word, ANNA and OHIO, it balanced up nicely. Of course we don't accept this till more information is available but it has the appearance of a very interesting local precancelled envelope.

DALLAS IN '52

You have read in LINNS and other journals where the PSS (Precancel Stamp Society) Convention will be held in Pittsburgh this year. August 23rd through the 26th, William Penn Hotel. The Official Program is now out and the Texas Precancel Club is asking for the convention for Dallas in 1952.

It has been over ten years since a convention has been down that way and we hope the Texas Club can land the convention.

WALTER REED
Army Surgeon

Born at Harrisburg, Va. 1851—died 1902. Received his M.D. degree at Virginia in 1869 and his surgeon's degree at Bellevue in 1870. He entered the Army Medical Corps in 1875, and went on frontier-duty until 1890, when he became curator of the Army Medical Museum and professor of bacteriology at the Army Medical College in Washington. He was promoted to Major and Chief Surgeon in 1893.

At the close of the Spanish-American War, in 1898 he was called upon to head a commission of noted bacteriologists to determine the cause of typhoid fever found in returning soldiers from Cuba; in 1900 their combined research extended also to the cause and transmission of yellow fever.

Sometime later, through brilliant experimentation in his personal laboratory in Baltimore, Dr. Reed was able to prove conclusively that the fever germ was transmitted by a variety of mosquito; with this information Major W. J. Gorgas and staff were able to wipe out in three months a plague which had recurred on the island of Cuba for centuries.

That famed army institution, the Walter Reed Hospital, was named to honor its great surgeon. It is not only a show place and active hospital in Washington, but also a place of rest and retreat for all manner of the big brass of Washington; Harry Truman "once slept here" and they built a special cozy annex where our good General Pershing spent the last ten years of his life, in retirement.

More Food Than Philately For Iowans

Members of the Cedar Rapids, Iowa Stamp Club are staggering away from one summer meeting after the other, not because of intoxication, but because they have partaken of some of the finest picnic food imaginable.

Apparently the club has had more food than stamp matters at these sessions for the story is current that by the time the lunch is consumed, little energy or will remains to discuss or dabble in stamps.

On August 28, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert French, club members, will be hosts to the group at their home for the final outdoor session of the season.

HAWAIIAN TRIP

first put on the table with deep plates and you ate till you were tired. With this came a plate of Italian bread which had been heated in an oven till it was almost too hot to touch with your fingers and with it plenty of butter. Following the soup we had olives, celery and radishes, then a small steak of excellent quality with a baked potato and another vegetable, after which a nice salad also ice cream and coffee. All this for $1.35 and I have seen poorer meals priced at $3.50 on the trip. Thus you in Frisco who have failed to visit the Iron Pot, take a tip and try it.

Not knowing just when we would leave San Francisco we had little time to make any attempt to call on stamp people but we did stop into a couple places on Market street while running about in the afternoons and trying to find out when and if we would sail. There was the store of The Postage Stamp Company, originally owned by R. H. Mowbray but now under the management of Sture Ljungdahl who has a splendidly arranged and very fine stock of stamps. Further up the street we stopped for a few minutes chat with Fred G. Back who operates the Phoenix Stamp Co. Altho a small shop, Mr. Back does a remarkably large business. This cared for our visiting with stamp men in Frisco on our way over for we were not on a business trip but on vacation and preferred not to talk business.

Came Friday and we were told the boat would sail at midnight so we went aboard about nine in the evening and arranged for a party in our room for local friends and others whom we knew would be aboard. The festivities were at their height when the all visitors ashore call came about 11:30. We thought then that we were to sail so we went on deck and helped throw paper streamers to the dock and everyone was in high spirits. Came midnight and the boat did not move. Soon there were rumors of trouble at the dock with another crowd of strikers who had a grievance to settle and we felt it best to go to bed and wake up out in the Pacific the next morning.

One of our first contacts was a photographer who told us that our home town paper wanted a photo for which we posed. We learned later that this is a service of the Matson Lines. They telegraph back to the small town papers all over the country advising them of people from their town who are to sail on the Lurline and offer to supply them with pictures. Thus we had our picture taken for the first time and the Matson Lines got their publicity, a very good bit of business and incidentally the photo was waiting for us when we got home, a real souvenir of the trip.

Saturday morning we awakened to find ourselves still tied to the dock and we were ready to cancel and give up for if we could not get to Hawaii in time for the show we had no wish to go. However about noon word passed that the boat would sail at 4 o'clock so we decided to wait and see and sure enough we got away and were we happy.

I have got a bit ahead of my story for it is pretty hard to put things in proper sequence when one attempts to do so solely from memory and all this story is written from memory for I was not doing the work of a reporter while on vacation. Thus when we first boarded the boat on Friday we were told to see the purser for our room and then to rush to the dining reservation stand and get our table arranged. We chose to eat at the second sitting as we are late risers and preferred it that way for various reasons. We were fortunate in getting a table with Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Root of Plymouth, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Guy V. Fisher of Altadena, California. The party was thus a very enjoyable one. Next we went for deck chairs and a blanket. This is extra service and you pay $1.50 each for the chairs and the same for a blanket. That makes $6.00 for a couple and unless you have traveled by boat before and intend laying in the deck chairs all day long, just do not buy them for we doubt if we spent an hour in the chairs on the entire trip and thus we saved that money on the return. There is far too much of interest and activity on the boat to permit any active person from laying around in a deck chair.

I imagine most of the women who as a rule are good eaters must have gained ten or twelve pounds on the trip for you never saw such food as was offered you at every meal of the day and between meals. I could use a column of space in talking about this but suffice to say I think we must have spent four or five hours a day in eating and every menu was better than anything you find in the top notch hotels and you could have all or any part of it if you could eat it. The boat having got away from San Francisco late, was out for a record run and thus we got cheated out of some of the time and meals we would have otherwise had, but our mission was Honolulu and we did not complain.

Amusements aboard the boat were sufficient to keep anyone happy. Horse racing, carried on by shaking some dice and moving the small wooden horses ahead according to numbers thrown. Bingo in the evenings with pots running from $75 to $150 were a feature every evening. You could take a ticket on the ships mileage for the day with a return of 9 to one for the lucky guesser. Canasta and Bridge tournaments in the afternoon with handsome prizes for the winners and Mrs. Linn is quite proud of having won a bridge tournament on one afternoon for which she received two lovely decks of cards in a leather case and was later presented with a certificate for "One Who Excels" signed by Captain Johnson. This is a souvenir she will always cherish.

In between these events were cocktail parties and other activities and when holding a party in your cabin any afternoon or evening you were supplied with large platters of assorted sandwiches and tid bits of various kinds at no cost at all. Prices for drinks on the boat were below those in most restaurants or hotels and cigarettes were $1.25 per carton, due to no tax on the high seas outside U.S. Jurisdiction.

One afternoon after we were down into more tropic waters and after the swimming pool had been opened, they served a picnic lunch on the after deck. You could find more kinds of cold cuts and other picnic foods than you could pile on a plate and carry, plus ice cream, watermelon, iced tea, coffee or most anything else you could ask for. Besides eating this if you were hungry you could also go to the dining room and eat again. Yes this Lurline was a gourmet's paradise.

All good things must end however and land came in sight about noon on Wednesday, June 27th. Being late, many of the usual formalities were rushed. The boat on regular schedule plans to land at 4 o'clock but this time being late all plans were ditched and when we rounded Diamond Head, the boarding party on two small boats came alongside as was the usual custom. We of the stamp crowd were advised to get on the top deck where the tennis court is located and up there we all went, about 30 people in the crowd.

The boarding party that came to greet us was headed by Major James T. DeVoss who was Chairman of the HAPEX. Harry Lindquist of STAMPS was with them as Harry and the wife had flown over several days earlier. With them came others from the stamp crowd along with Hula girls and all had arms full of leis to drape around our necks. The men in the crowd had a big time greeting the women for the custom is to hang a Lei around the neck and then give them a kiss of welcome and many of the ladies had several of the leis before greetings were over.

Pres photographers from both of the Honolulu Newspapers were with this group and asked Mrs. Linn and myself to pose for be it known I was Chairman of the Judges for the show and thus rated a bit of attention.

One picture as shown in this story was taken of the two of us in our Hawaiian raiment and printed in the Honolulu Advertiser next morning, then the other photographer asked us to get another couple with us and we prevailed upon Mr. and Mrs. Guy V. Fisher of Altadena, Calif. to pose with us for another picture which was in the other Honolulu paper the Star-Bulletin next day.

While aboard many pictures were snapped and Mrs. Linn caught me with a couple of the Hula girls who had boarded the boat. These latter pictures are out now for development and we will see what we get when we get them.

Following the festivities with the boarding party we got off the boat and took cabs for the hotel. I shall have to leave you wait till next week to tell you of our arrival there and the rest of the story if I can get it all in another number, if not it will come a week later, so till then let me work at something else for I must get caught up with my mail.
